Objective (100 words)	The Intra-Institutional Start-up Competition aims to promote an entrepreneurial culture within the institution by encouraging students to bring forward innovative ideas. It provides a platform for participants to develop and present viable start-up models, fostering creativity and practical application.
Benefit in-terms of learning/skill/knowledge obtained	The competition enhances students' entrepreneurial knowledge and sharpens their business planning skills. It helps participants build confidence, teamwork, and presentation abilities through real-time exposure to start-up pitching. Additionally, it offers recognition, mentorship, and opportunities for scaling innovative ventures, bridging the gap between academic learning and practical entrepreneurship.
