Event Report

Title	Seminar on R & D Awareness and Capacity building towards Research Ethics, Funding sources and global best practices – Faculty and Students
Department	Research and Development
Date	From: 14.11.2025	To: 14.11.2025
Time	From: 02:00 PM	To: 04:00 PM
Brief Description (4-5 Lines Max)	The Seminar on R&D Awareness and Capacity Building was organized to provide valuable insights into key areas of research, including research ethics, funding sources, and global best practices. The seminar aimed to enhance the knowledge and capabilities of faculty members and students in conducting high-quality, ethical research. The event attracted 36 faculty members and 29 first-semester students from BCom, BBA, and BCA programs who expressed a keen interest in research. This collaborative event fostered an engaging environment for learning and idea exchange. The session addressed the challenges researchers face and helped them navigate research methodologies, funding opportunities, and the importance of maintaining ethical standards. Dr. Vinoth discussed the journal selection process, advising scholars to evaluate journals based on several key criteria: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Subject relevance • Impact factor • Indexing (e.g., SCI, Scopus, UGC CARE) • Review process • Publisher reputation He made a clear distinction between reputable journals and predatory journals, guiding participants on how to choose the right platform for their research.
